I hated this and it was a waste of money. It only had 5 chapters and you were left hanging :(

Good book but the story happened too fast. Not realistic in the way that it unfolded. I felt that there should have been more to the story.

Not the best for JD. I read all her books, butthis was not great. Too blah for my taste.

I felt that the story was not interesting and the characters were not well defined. The author was in too much of a hurry to finish.

I would recommend this book. Love, romance and great humor that had me laughing out loud. Relaxed reading I enjoyed.

This is what a short story should be ~ a tale where the story-line is allowed to develop fully, and where the characters and their situation feels real to the reader, before reaching a satisfying conclusion. It has everything a good novel has, just in a shorter format. This was an excellent story, regardless of its length, and I highly recommend it!

Very good story. Was a easy, fast read. Enjoyed the story line. Would recommend if you like short stories. Happy

I love Jude's stories. She has a way of drawing you into each story. Each book is tailored for individuals, who love romance in any time period. You just cannot read only one. If you love romance stories, then just start reading one of Jude Deveraux's books and you to will be hooked like me.
