Customer Reviews

In this part of the story series by Ms. Tamara Lush we meet up again with some of Ms. Lush's wonderful characters and her captivating way she tells a story. I loved the first part tell me a story and knew this part was going to be good. I know I usually avoid these types of stories the most especially since a lot of times they end in cliffhangers and I have to wait to read the next part but in this part I didn't mind so much. Caleb and Emma have been dating for two years spending every moment they can together. Unfortunately the time they spend together is more of a sexual nature and Emma questions their relationship wondering if it will be permanent lasting forever leading to marriage and hopefully a long awaited baby. Caleb enjoys the relationship where it's at but will Caleb be able to commit to Emma and propose or is marriage too much for him? I have always liked and admired the free spirited independent unique style of Emma but in this part of the series she kind of irritated me. I didn't like her pushing or questioning Caleb so much especially in wanting to get pregnant and married. I understand her frustration and her insecurity but she should have trusted him more instead of asking everyone what they thought. I still couldn't help but like her and wanted to tell her to be just a little patient plus to talk with Caleb more. In this part I just couldn't help but like and fall for Caleb. I sympathized with Caleb's reticence in how he feels about Emma, his thoughts of marriage, a baby and even the future. I really related to Caleb in this part since there was a lot more about him. I didn't think it was so bad for them to be dating for so long and thought Emma should have made that big decision/question Caleb had asked of her.
