The Breast Machine: An Erotic Tale Of Hucow Experimentation

Synopsis

Never would Susan have thought she would have put herself in such a position. Her husband had been her first and the only one to have ever seen her naked - and now here she was in front of two strangers, being touched in a way that was making her slightly uncomfortable. But she needed the money, and participating as a subject in their study paid a king's ransom... "They're professionals" she kept telling herself. But there was touching as they prepared her for the study - it seemed inappropriate, yet it made Susan oddly aroused, and she wrote it off as a byproduct of the black nurse's good looks. And then they put on the device... It was meant to help nursing mothers - that's what they had told her. That was why she was perfect, she was a nursing mother herself. But it was unlike any device she had ever felt before, and once the doctor started turning that knob, Susan thought she would go out of her mind!  This is an erotic tale of huCow experiments between a MILF and several medical professionals - enjoy if you dare! ***
