Cherished (Demon's Mark 6): Paranormal Erotic Romance

Synopsis

He was meant to let her go. She was meant to be free. Kain never knew he was capable of love - or that any woman would ever be able to give her heart to him. Yet when the mate he claimed to ease his guilty conscience needs his protection once again, he can't stop his possessive urges from taking over. She is all he wants and everything he needs - and he will lay the world in ruins to keep her by his side. After a lifetime of being chased by demons, Selma is finally free. But freedom comes at a much higher price than she could have imagined: giving up everything she ever wanted. Perhaps the most important things in life can be found in the arms of the very creatures she always feared? Sixth and final book in the Demon's Mark series. Contains darkly erotic scenes and demons who like to play rough. Not for the faint-hearted.

Great balls of fire! Cherished is the sixth and final installment of the heart pounding serial by Nora Ash. And it just gets better and better! Oh my! I was totally and completely spellbound from beginning to end. The story is exciting, original, dark, powerful, addictive, compelling, thrilling, riveting, arousing and sexy. The dialog is smart, well written and flows smoothly. The characters are imaginative, fascinating and intriguing. I absolutely love it. It is utterly irresistible! As a child, everyone thought Selma's strange behavior was just a result of a child's overactive imagination but as Selma grew older and the "hallucinations" continued, her parents worried that she may be mentally ill. She was bounced from one doctor and mental facility to another until she finally realized she must lie to everyone and pretend she didn't see the monsters that seemed to leer at her and follow her everywhere. And for years, she managed to hide it well until she was viciously attacked by them. Now at almost 30 years old, she felt alone, desolate, defeated and very afraid and as a last resort, admitted herself for treatment at Ravenswood House. Little did she know that the monsters she saw were very real and that her new doctor, Martin Hershey was actually a monster himself and had so much more in store for his lovely new patient than just psychiatric therapy. Now he wants her for himself and no matter the consequence, he's determined to have his little breeder. Selma was finally able to escape the clutches of the crazed demon, Martin Hershey also know as Marathin only to be attacked again by the female demons. She is rescued by Kain, Lord Protector of the city who promises to help the strange, beautiful breeder. Kain is distraught by the feelings she stirs in his cold heart.
