Last Line: A Bad Boy Billionaire Romance

Synopsis

I'm arrogant and filthy rich. Two truths that land a new woman in my bed nightly. Uncomplicated | Uncommitted...And completely satisfying. When you don't care, you can't get hurt. But when Bailey Jameson walked into my bar, she immediately started complicating things. One night wasn't enough and our pasts are too similar. We were bound to fall for our urges. I craved everything about her. My money and arrogance wouldn't get me far with Bailey. I had to work for it. And I did. Now that I have her I intend to keep her, no matter the struggles we will undoubtedly endure. Will we be able to save ourselves or will we both succumb to our demons? *All the insta-yumminess you expect from Heather Stone, but now in a full-length standalone novel!

Customer Reviews

Last LineBy: Heather Stone3.5 star review by Kristie K. Our favorite author of the insta-love novella, Heather Stone, has finally blessed us with her first full length, standalone novel. As with many readers, I was anxious for this development in Ms. Stone's career. The question now is, was it everything we hoped it would be? Reed Lawson is a billionaire playboy that enjoys uncomplicated relationships that only amount to dirty sex and no expectations for more. With a past as dark as his hand made suits, Reed has tried to keep his club and himself on the straight and narrow, determined for history to never repeat itself. As owner of the hottest club in New York, Reed easily has his pick of women—so why does he find himself drawn to the new cocktail waitress at his club? With his past, he learned the hard way not to screw the help—but he may have to break his own rules. Bailey Jameson is the most beautifully broken woman Reed has ever laid eyes on. Though his usual M.O. is to stay far away from such temptation, there is just something about Bailey that has him crossing every line and breaking every self-made rule. What Reed doesn't know yet is that Bailey has her own skeletons, and they are every bit as dark and frightening as his own. Working at a club like this is the last place Bailey should be, but her sister stuck her neck out for her, and she can't let her down again—plus she needs the money. Determined to keep her gorgeous boss at arms length, Bailey isn't prepared for the onslaught of sexual tension that ripples the air between them. Soon the attraction can't be denied, and both Reed and Bailey are breaking all the rules—but will they break each other in the process?
