We first saw this book during my daughter's visit to the dentist, right after they showed us her front tooth was loose. We read it together and my daughter giggled at just about every page. She loved the book so much, she wanted to take it home with us, but knew she couldn't. After we got home I looked up the book and ordered it without telling her. 3 days later, she got the book in the mail and has been reading parts of it on her own as part of our nightly reading time. She has since lost both front bottom baby teeth, but still loves to read this.

Perfect for 5 and 6 year olds loosing their first tooth. Even younger children will enjoy the adventure and be prepared for the big step. Very cute, my 3 and 6 year old grandchildren enjoyed it.
