Customer Reviews

How do you put together the collected works of Flaubert and leave out his best novel, Sentimental

Education? Who compiled this collection?

It is rather a long time since I read this so my recollections may be at fault but it is a pleasure to be admitted into a world that I have missed by a few years only. It is always a delight to be allowed to wallow in a bit of nostalgia.

The honest character of Felicite as described Flaubert makes this book endearing and touching. The faith and soul of Felicite shines far brighter than all the others in the story. Gustave Flaubert is one of the greatest authors, in my opinion and many others. His choice of words is impressive. The calous mistress of Felicite is terribly inconsiderate and heartless.
