Customer Reviews

Much of what the other reviewers have listed as plusses for this book is what has prevented me from even finishing reading it. I got 50% through the book and had to stop reading because I felt I was torturing myself. There are way too many plot twist shoved into this one book and many are extremely difficult to keep track of. Between Teddy and Georgia; Wanda, Ulysses and Osana; Osana and Shad; Georgia and Kel it was all too much.

Georgia life wasn't what it should have been thanks to her uncle Teddy. I will never understand why a man could be that jealous of his brother that he would rob him of the child he felt he deserved. The drama is on point. I enjoyed myself.

It's Dynasty and Dallas rolled into 1....this is soap opera on a tablet....these bunch of people will keep you turning the pages faster than you can text...the patriarch passes away which is sad because he seems to be the sanest and most lovable of all the cast of characters..his passing opened up Pandora's box..literally and figuratively....lets see...the grieving widow has sex with the messed up nephew whose engaged to her daughter...the grieving brother who secretly hates his deceased brother...don't want to give too much away.hmmmm...did I mention the long lost daughter who may or not be the heir apparent...juicy stuff..quick afternoon guilty pleasure

Georgia is thirty four years old and thinks her father abandoned her and her mother who was a maid for her father Anthony's family. Anthony's father had groomed him to take over the family's business and a choice had to be made. Georgia never got over her father leaving them and grew up hating rich people and their snotty ways. She is met with resistant when she is introduced to her deceased father's family. His widow will take to Georgia but she will have to put up with a half sister from hell! Not all is lost when a love prospect appears on the horizon. This author has once again penned an exciting read that kept me thoroughly entertained!!!

Wanda, Ulysses, Osana and Shad there was a lot of steaminess going on here. Shad was always trying to get with Osana but she was in love with Ulysses who couldn't keep his hands off Wanda. You will be amazed at the twisting plot between Wanda Ulysses and Osana you won't see it coming!Kel and Georgia worked hard to get over the past. They started to ignite that spark between them but how far did they get? You'll have read to find out! The chemistry between these two is evident.
